

Center for Slavic and East European Studies

Newsletter

372 Stephens Hall
University of California
Berkeley, CA 94720
642-3230

PROCESSED

JUN 08 2006

October 1983

CENTER NEWS

We are very grateful to Colin Miller who is sponsoring our subscription to Current Digest of the Soviet Press for the coming year. The results of Mr. Miller's generosity can be found on the shelves in the Center Reading Room. Thank you, Mr. Miller!

The Fulbright Alumni Association invites former holders of Fulbright awards to enroll in its program of support for international education and cultural exchange. Interested parties may contact Mr. Arthur P. Dudden, Executive Director, P.O. Box 1042, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania 19010.

The 1983 Supplement of the bibliography Russian/Soviet Literature: Selected Resources at U.C. Berkeley has recently been made available for distribution. The Supplement was compiled by V. Wakeman; it covers three years, 1980-82. The original work was compiled in early 1980 by R. Lednicky and V. Wakeman. Copies of the original work and of the supplement are available at the Center.

Theses and Dissertations in the Slavic, East European and Related Areas Completed at the University of California, Berkeley: 1918-1979, compiled by Simone Klugman with the assistance of Edward Kasinec, is available through the Center. Orders are being taken now, and there will be a waiting period of about one month before they will be filled. This bibliography is especially useful since UCB dissertations have not been listed in the subject catalogs since 1962.

NATIONAL EVENTS

AAASS - The American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies will hold its 15th Annual Convention October 22-25, 1983, in Kansas City, Missouri. Contact: AAASS, History Dept., Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305; telephone: 497-9669.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR SOVIET & EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES will be held October 30 - November 2, 1985, in Washington, D.C. Proposals for papers or sessions may be sent to: Program Committee Chairperson, Prof. Donald Treagold, Dept. of History, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195.

SYMPOSIUM - HUNGARY - The Hungarian Chair at Indiana University will sponsor a symposium for graduate students on April 23, 24, and 25, 1984. Selected students will give 20-minute talks on original research pertaining to Hungary in the fields of political science, sociology, history, economics, literature, music or the arts. All local expenses paid by the Chair. Nominations accepted until October 15, 1983.

SYMPOSIUM - DEMOCRACY - Ben-Gurion University in Beer-Sheva, Israel, will sponsor an international conference in December 1983, entitled "Leadership, Democracy and Crisis." The conference will focus on problems of leadership from a comparative approach. Topics will include the role of leadership in nation-building and typology of leadership in times of crisis. Contact: Prof. Yeshayahu Jelinek, Ben-Gurion Research Centre, Kiryat Sde Boker, Negev, Israel.

375 Stephens Hall
University of California
Berkeley, CA 94720
(415) 848-2130

Newsletter

October 1983

CENTER NEWS

We are very grateful to Collin Miller who is sponsoring our subscription to Current Digest of the Soviet Press for the coming year. The results of Mr. Miller's generosity can be found on the shelves in the Center Reading Room. Thank you, Mr. Miller!

The Twilight Alumni Association invites former holders of Twilight awards to enroll in its program of support for international education and cultural exchange. Interested parties may contact Mr. Arthur P. Dodson, Executive Director, P.O. Box 1043, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania 19010.

The 1983 Supplement of the Library of the History of Russian Literature, published by the University of California, Berkeley, has recently been made available for distribution. The Supplement was compiled by V. W. Mahan; it covers three years, 1980-82. The original work was compiled in early 1983 by V. W. Mahan and V. W. Mahan. Copies of the original work and of the Supplement are available at the Center.

Press and Dissertations in the Slavic, East European and Related Areas compiled at the University of California, Berkeley, 1918-1978, compiled by Sharon Kagan with the assistance of Edward Kagan, is available through the Center. Orders are being taken now, and there will be a waiting period of about one month before they will be filled. This bibliography is especially useful since DCP dissertations have not been listed in the subject catalog since 1981.

AASL - The American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies will hold its 18th Annual Convention October 22-25, 1983, in Kansas City, Missouri. Contact: AASL, 1215 West 12th, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305; telephone: 415-723-2600.

THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR SOVIET & EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES will be held October 30 - November 4, 1983, in Washington, D.C. Proposals for papers or sessions may be sent to: Program Committee Chairperson, Prof. David Yezzer, Dept. of History, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195.

REPORTING BOARD - The Hungarian Chair at Indiana University will report on the results of its research on April 12-14, 1984. Contact: David Yezzer, 1215 West 12th, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305; telephone: 415-723-2600.

FELLOWSHIPS, EMPLOYMENT, TRAVEL/STUDY

The Center maintains a file of notices for the current year and a backfile of information on earlier offerings. Many notices are posted outside the Center's office, 372 Stephens Hall. Unless otherwise stated, further information on the opportunities listed below is available at the Center. In general, items listed in one edition will not appear in subsequent editions.

Senior Fulbright Program for East Europe and the USSR will accept applications past the September 15, 1983, deadline until a sufficient number has been received. Interested scholars are advised to inquire about the status of particular awards.

John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation offers fellowships to scholars and artists for research in any field of knowledge and creation in any of the arts. Deadline: October 1, 1983. Contact the Foundation at: 90 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016, 212/687-4470.

Leningrad State University invites students to participate in its Russian language and literature, and Russian area studies programs in Leningrad. Programs last either one or two semesters and include cultural activities and an 11-day field trip. Deadline for Spring 1984 is October 5, 1983.

Fulbright Scholar-in-Residence for 1984-85 is accepting applications from institutions prepared to host a visiting scholar for one quarter, one semester or the full academic year. Proposal deadline: October 15, 1983.

National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) announces a special deadline for applications to Basic Research Program for support of collaborative or coordinated research projects that deal with historical, philosophical, theoretical and social development of humanities disciplines and their current status; or with the bicentennial of the United States Constitution. Archaeology projects already funded by the Program are also eligible. Applications to be postmarked no later than October 21, 1983.

Booz, Allen & Hamilton, in Bethesda, Maryland, announced an opening for a Soviet Military and Technology Affairs Analyst. The position requires the B.A./B.S. or M.A.; strong Russian reading ability; strong writing skills; and one to three years of consulting or government work in intelligence analysis.

Voice of America has openings for professional mid-level foreign and domestic correspondents. Candidates must be American citizens with strong writing skills and background in international or area studies. Overseas experience and foreign language skills preferred. Work involves primarily political-economic stories and in-depth background pieces on the geographical areas involved.

United States Department of State paper outlines U.S. government employment categories for specialists in field of Soviet nationalities, and gives suggestions for academic development of such specialists and for academic programs. Requirements given for linguists, translators, editors, analysts, field officers. Paper at Center.

Global Perspectives: An Interdisciplinary Journal of International Relations is devoted to publication of research by senior undergraduates and graduate students on international aspects of politics, economics, business & marketing, security, law, organization, history, development, theory & methodology, culture & language studies, education, all area studies and all subfields. Papers accepted continuously.

The Center maintains a list of notices for the current year and a partial of information on earlier offerings. These notices are posted outside the Center's office, 211 Stephens Hall. Unless otherwise stated, further information on the opportunities listed below is available at the Center. In general, items listed in one edition will not appear in subsequent editions.

Senior Fulbright Program for East Europe and the USSR will accept applications from the September 15, 1983, deadline until a sufficient number has been received. Interested scholars are advised to inquire about the status of particular awards.

John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation offers fellowships to scholars and artists for research in any field of knowledge and creation in any of the arts. Deadline: October 1, 1983. Contact the Foundation at: 90 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016, 212/687-4470.

Leningrad State University invites students to participate in its Russian language and literature, and Russian area studies programs in Leningrad. Programs last either one or two semesters and include cultural activities and an 11-day field trip. Deadline for Spring 1984 is October 5, 1983.

Fulbright Scholar-in-Residence for 1984-85 is accepting applications from individuals prepared to host a visiting scholar for one quarter, one semester or the full academic year. Proposal deadline: October 15, 1983.

National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) announces a special deadline for applications to Basic Research Program for support of collaborative or coordinated research projects that deal with historical, philosophical, theoretical and social development of humanities disciplines and their current status; or with the bicentennial of the United States Constitution. Archaeological projects already funded by the program are also eligible. Applications to be postmarked no later than October 21, 1983.

Booz, Allen & Hamilton, in Baltimore, Maryland, announced an opening for a Senior Military and Technology Analyst. The position requires the B.A. degree and strong Russian speaking ability; strong writing skills; and one to three years of consulting or government work in intelligence analysis.

Voice of America has openings for professional mid-level foreign and domestic correspondents. Candidates must be American citizens with strong writing skills and background in international or area studies. Overseas experience and fluency in foreign languages preferred. Work involves primarily political-economic analysis. In-depth background pieces on the geographical areas involved.

United States Department of State is seeking U.S. government employees for special assignments in field of Soviet administration, and gives suggestions for development of such assignments with academic programs. Requirements: U.S. citizenship, fluency in Russian, and a master's degree in the field.

Johns Hopkins University is seeking U.S. government employees for special assignments in field of Soviet administration, and gives suggestions for development of such assignments with academic programs. Requirements: U.S. citizenship, fluency in Russian, and a master's degree in the field.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

- Oct. 1
Millerbach
8:00 p.m.
BALLET: The OAKLAND BALLET presents Les Noces, by Bronislava Nijinska with music by Igor Stravinsky. Also on the program are Billy the Kid and Cakewalk. Tickets available through the Paramount Box Office (465-6400) and BASS.
- Oct. 3
2 Stephens
noon
BAG LUNCH: KARL-EUGEN WAEDEKIN, Professor of Economics at the University of Giessen, West Germany, and one of the world's leading specialists on Soviet agriculture, will speak on "Soviet and East European Agriculture in the 1980s."
- Oct. 3
6 Barrows
5:30 p.m.
DISCUSSION: KARL-EUGEN WAEDEKIN will speak on a panel with Professors Kenneth Gray and Gregory Grossman on the question "Should the Reagan Administration Have Signed the Grain Agreement with the USSR?" The panelists' statements will be followed by discussion.
- Oct. 3
9 Dwinelle
8:00 p.m.
COLLOQUIUM: The Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures will sponsor a talk by Professor Walter Schamschula tentatively entitled "Jaroslav Hašek's Good Soldier Schweik."
- Oct. 4
3 Dwinelle
8:00 p.m.
LECTURE: MICHAEL HEIM, Professor of Slavic Languages, University of California, Los Angeles, will speak on "Karel Čapek and T.G. Masaryk." Co-sponsored with the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures.
- Oct. 4 & 7
San Francisco
Opera House
OPERA: The SAN FRANCISCO OPERA will perform Janáček's Katya Kabanova in English. Some tickets are still available for the performances listed; however, the Sunday, October 9 performance is nearly sold out. Call the Opera Box Office (864-3330) for tickets and information.
- Oct. 4
Surf Theatre,
San Francisco
FILMS: Ashes and Diamonds, directed by Andrzej Wajda (1958), 8:15 p.m.; and Knife in the Water, directed by Roman Polansky (1962), 6:30 and 10:15 p.m.
- Oct. 5
42 Stephens
noon
BAG LUNCH: IVAN SVITAK, Professor of Philosophy, California State University, Chico, will speak on "Edvard Beneš: Foreign Policy, 1938-1948."
- Oct. 6
42 Stephens
noon
BAG LUNCH - RESCHEDULED: MACIEJ KARPINSKI, Polish playwright, drama critic and theater critic, will speak on "Contemporary Polish Literature as a Political Weapon."
- Oct. 7
Morrison Room,
Doe Library
8:00 p.m.
SPECIAL PROGRAM: F. GREGORY CAMPBELL, Professor of Political Science and Special Assistant to the President of the University of Chicago, will speak on "The Significance of the Republic Period in Czech History." The talk will be followed by the formal opening of an exhibit in Doe Library entitled "The Prism of a Culture -- Berkeley's Masaryk-Beneš Collection and Interwar Czechoslovakia."
- Oct. 8
Hertz Hall
8:00 p.m.
PIANO RECITAL: RUTH LAREDO will perform Rachmaninoff's Prelude in G major, Prelude in G flat major, Moment Musical in E flat major, and Hopak from the Fair at Sorochinsk. The program will also include Three Mazurkas by Chopin, the Sonata in C major by Beethoven, and Barber's Sonata for Piano.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
LECTURE: THE SOVIET BATTLE FOR MOSCOW, by Professor William H. Overland. This lecture will be given in the Seminar Room, 1000 University Avenue, Room 100. Tickets available through the Paramount Box Office (1987) and PASS.

1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.
LECTURE: KATYUŠA - RUSSIAN WARHEROES, Professor of Economics at the University of Chicago, West Germany, and one of the world's leading specialists on Soviet agriculture, will speak on "Soviet and East European Agriculture in the 1980s".

2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.
DISCUSSION: KATYUŠA - RUSSIAN WARHEROES will speak on a panel with Professors Kenneth Gray and Gregory Grossman on the question "Should the Reagan Administration have signed the Grain Agreement with the USSR?" The panelists' statements will be followed by discussion.

4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
COLLOQUIUM: THE REFORMATION OF SLAVIC LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES will present a talk by Professor Walter Schmalstieg tentatively entitled "Linguistic and Literary Change in the 19th Century".

5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
LECTURE: MICHAEL REIN, Professor of Slavic Languages, University of California, Los Angeles, will speak on "Karel Čapek and F.C. Masaryk." Co-sponsored with the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures.

6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
OPERAS: The SAN FRANCISCO OPERA will perform Janáček's "Káťa Kabánová" in English. Some tickets are still available for the performances listed, however, the Sunday, October 9 performance is nearly sold out. Call the Opera Box Office (864-3330) for tickets and information.

7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
THEATRE: "AFTER THE BOMBING" directed by Andrew Waters (1978), 8:15 p.m.; and "AFTER THE BOMBING" directed by Roman Polanski (1971), 8:30 p.m.

8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
LECTURE: IVAL TITTEL, Professor of Philosophy, California State University, Chico, will speak on "Nietzsche's 'The Birth of Tragedy'." 1934-1944.

9:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
LECTURE: MICHAEL REIN, Professor of Slavic Languages and Literatures, will speak on "Contemporary Polish Literature as a Political Weapon."

10:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.
SPECIAL PROGRAM: F. TREVOR CAMPBELL, Professor of Political Science and Special Assistant to the President of the University of Chicago, will speak on "The Significance of the Russian Period in Czech History." The talk will be followed by the formal opening of an exhibit in the Seminar Room, 1000 University Avenue, Room 100. Tickets available through the Paramount Box Office (1987) and PASS.

10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.
 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.
 2:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.
 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
 8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
 9:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
 10:00 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS (CONT.)

Wed. Oct. 12
42 Stephens
Noon

BAG LUNCH: MICHAEL SHAFIR, Tel Aviv University, will speak on "Anti-Semitism in Romania."

Wed. Oct. 12
Fri. Oct. 21
Avies Symphony Hall
7:30 and 2:30
p.m.

SYMPHONY: The SAN FRANCISCO SYMPHONY will perform Liadov's "Kikimora", and Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 3. The program will also feature Session's Symphony No. 6, and Wagner's Prelude and "Liebestod" from "Tristan und Isolde." Dates are: Wed. Oct. 12, Fri. Oct. 14 & 21, and Sat. Oct. 15, at 8:30 p.m.; and Thurs. Oct. 13 at 2:30 p.m. Edo deWaart will conduct, with Zoltan Kocsis on piano.

Thurs. Oct. 13
Pacific Film
Archives (PFA)
7:30/9:20 p.m.

FILM FESTIVAL: The first of a selection of films with Soviet, Russian and East European themes. Tonight's films are The Murder of Dimitri Karamazov, directed by F. Ozep (1931), in German with English titles; and Crime and Punishment, directed by P. Chenal (1935), in French with English titles. These films are based on Dostoevsky novels.

Fri./Sat.
Oct. 14 & 15
Kellerbach
7:00 p.m.

BALLET: The OAKLAND BALLET will perform "Dvorak Dances", choreographed by Ronn Guidi to music of Dvorak. Also on the program are Sonata, Billy the Kid, and Inconsequential. To order tickets, phone 642-9988.

Sat. Oct. 15
PFA
7:00/9:40 p.m.

FILM FESTIVAL: Two films directed by Nikita Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky - Oblomov (1980), and Five Evenings (1979). Both are in Russian with English titles. Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky also directed Slave of Love and Unfinished Piece for Player Piano.

Wed. Oct. 19
42 Stephens
Noon

BAG LUNCH: EDWARD KASINEC, Slavic Librarian at the University of California, Berkeley, will speak on "East Europe, the Soviet Union and Japan: Slavica Collections, Slavic Scholarship, Recent Impressions."

Wed. Oct. 19
PFA
7:30/9:00 p.m.

FILM FESTIVAL: Two rare Soviet silent films directed by Abram Romm - The Ghost That Never Returns (1929), and Bed and Sofa (1927). Both films have English intertitles.

Thurs. Oct. 20
PFA
7:00 p.m.

FILM FESTIVAL: Revolt of the Fishermen (1934), directed by the German director Irwin Piscator with Mikhail Doller, with an all-Russian cast; in Russian with English titles, except for 15 minutes without titles. Also on the program are Victor Trivas' Dans les Rues and No Man's Land.

Fri. Oct. 21
PFA
7:00/8:40 p.m.

FILM FESTIVAL: Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors (1964), directed by Sergei Paradzhanov. This is a beautiful new print of this epic work by a director now in jail. In Ukrainian, with English titles. Also, Marketa Lazarova (1968), directed by Frantisek Vlácil. This film traces the emergence of state law from tribal law during the 13th century.

Wed. Oct. 26
42 Stephens
Noon

BAG LUNCH: DOBRICA COSIC, Yugoslavia's foremost novelist, will give a talk on a topic to be announced. Mr. Cosic is author of This Land, This Time, a four-volume work on the history of Serbia. He will be assisted by a translator.

Wed. Nov. 2
42 Stephens
Noon

BAG LUNCH: DR. RAYMOND HUTCHINGS, specialist on Soviet economic affairs, currently affiliated with Chatham House and the Royal United Services Institute for Defence Studies, will speak on "Soviet Arms to the Third World: Chronological and Regional Patterns."

CALENDAR OF EVENTS (CONT.)

BAG LUNCH: MICHAEL SHAPIRO, Tel Aviv University, will speak on "Anti-Semitism in Romania."

SYMPHONY: The SAN FRANCISCO SYMPHONY will perform Liszt's "Kuchner" and Rachmaninov's Piano Concerto No. 3. The program will also feature Sessions's Symphony No. 6, and Wagner's Prelude and "Liebestod" from "Tristan und Isolde." Dates are: Wed. Oct. 11, Fri. Oct. 12 & 13, and Sat. Oct. 14, at 8:30 p.m. and Thurs. Oct. 13 at 3:30 p.m. The Hayward and East European themes. Tonight's films are The Mother of Russia, known as The Mother of Russia (1937), in German with English titles; and The Mother of Russia (1937), in French with English titles. These films are based on Dostoevsky novels.

Center for Slavic and East European Studies

BAG LUNCH: The OAKLAND BALLET will perform "Swan Lake," choreographed by Boris Gidlov. Also on the program are Sonatas, Rite of Spring, and Inconsolable. To order tickets, phone 843-9288.

FILM FESTIVAL: Two films directed by Nikita Mikhalkov-Koshchovskiy: The End of the World (1977), and The End of the World (1977). Both are in Russian with English subtitles. Mikhalkov-Koshchovskiy also directed Slave of Love and Slave of Love (1977). Unfinished piece for piano.

BAG LUNCH: EDWARD KASINIC, Slavic Librarian at the University of California, will speak on "East Europe, the Soviet Union and Japan: Slavic Collections, Slavic Scholarship, Recent Impressions."

FILM FESTIVAL: Two rare Soviet silent films directed by Abram Room: The Ghost of the Past (1929), and The End of the World (1929). Both are in Russian with English subtitles.

FILM FESTIVAL: Record of the Flamingo (1934), directed by the German director Fritz Flanner with Michael Dole, with an all-Russian cast in Russian with English titles, except for 15 minutes without titles. Also on the program are Victor Trivas, Hans Les Russes and No Man's Land.

FILM FESTIVAL: Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors (1964), directed by Sergei Paradunov. This is a beautiful new print of this epic work by a director now in jail. In Ukrainian, with English titles. Also on the program are Victor Trivas, Hans Les Russes and No Man's Land.

BAG LUNCH: DIMITRI DIMITRIYEV, former Soviet poet, will speak on "The History of Soviet Literature." He will also read from his latest work, "The History of Soviet Literature."

BAG LUNCH: DIMITRI DIMITRIYEV, former Soviet poet, will speak on "The History of Soviet Literature." He will also read from his latest work, "The History of Soviet Literature."